OUR CONTINUED PROSPERITY

depends largely upon the loyalty of our pastors and people to the publications of the BOOK CONCERN which according to the judgment of those who know are the very best in Editorial matter and quality published.

The Graded Lessons have been reduced in price and are growing in favor. Every up-to-date Sunday School should use them at least in some departments.

REMEMBER

That we do not confine ourselves to supplying the publications of our house in Books, as we keep on hand constantly a large stock of outside publications and shall be pleased to get any book not on hand at the publisher's list price or less.

REMEMBER

That every order you send us, whether of our own or other publications, adds to the profits of the Book Concern and helps to increase the dividends for the benefit of the superannuated ministers.

DAILY PROCEEDING
OF
Detroit Annual Conference
1916

SIXTY-FIRST SESSION

FIRST DAY

Wednesday Morning, September 13, 1916

Opening Session—The sixty-first session of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in the new auditorium of the Grand River Avenue Church, Detroit, Michigan, Wednesday morning, Sept. 13th, 1916, Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, the resident Bishop of the Detroit Area, presiding.

Sacramental Service—Hymn No. 141, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" was sung. Bishop Henderson read Matt. 20: 17-28 and then while he read appropriate Scripture verses a collection of $39.00 was taken for Methodist preachers in North Carolina seriously affected by the floods. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered, the Bishop consecrating and the District Superintendents, with the pastor of the Grand River Avenue Church, distributing the elements. It proved a blessed hour of devotion and of self-consecration.

Memorial Services—The Memorial Service, held in recognition of the ministers, and the wives of ministers of the Conference, who had died during the year, was conducted by Calvin M. Thompson, Chairman of the Committee on Memoirs. Seth Reed, our nonagenarian youth who answered to his 72nd consecutive roll call truly led us to the Throne of Grace in prayer. Memoirs were read by the Chairman: of John Sweet, Joseph Frazer, Henry S. White, Lucius S. Tedman, Franklin Bradley, and W. W. Washburn; and Edgar L. Moon read the memoirs of Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, Mrs. J. W. Crippen, Mrs. J. E. Somers, Mrs. J. H. McCune, Mrs. R. C. Crane and Mrs. W. H. Benton.

William Dawe, drawing from a wealth of personal association with these fallen Christian toilers delivered the Memorial address, of rare beauty and power, paying high tribute to their worth and character.

Roll Call—H. Addis Leeson, Secretary of the Conference at the last session, called the roll, and the following 233 members and 12 probationers answered to their name:

Joint Session—On motion, a joint Executive session with the Laymen's Association was ordered. Mr. A. L. Parker, Chairman of the Permanent Endowment Fund Commission, called upon Earl R. Rice, Secretary, who reported the progress of the year in the work of this commission. A. L. Parker presented the following plan and resolutions and moved their adoption:

Plan For the Endowment Fund Foundation

(a) The Detroit Annual Conference will provide for the future by establishing a reserve fund for annuity pensions, the minimum being $360.00 per annum and the maximum $1,000.00, for all the retired ministers who have served thirty years or more, with corresponding payments for earlier disability and for the widows and orphans.

(b) Such reserve fund will be accumulated by the payments of annual dues from the ministers of a maximum of two per cent. (2%) of their salaries and from the churches of seven per cent. (7%) of such salaries—nine per cent. (9%)—with which to pay the above benefits for all time to come.

(c) The money paid into the fund by the ministers will give them an equity in the fund repayable with interest as an annuity on their retirement or removal from the Conference.

(d) The accrued obligations of the Conference for annuities to superannuates and active members, estimated at $50,000 per annum, will be met by providing an Endowment Fund made up as follows:

To be raised by present Endowment
Fund Campaign	$280,000
Corporate Conference Funds.....	20,000
Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society
Funds	100,000
Laymen's Special Fund not less than enough to total a million.

Such consolidated fund will provide adequate annuities for the present active and retired members of the Conference and will constitute a permanent Methodist Foundation.

(e) The Foundation which will include both the Endowment and Reserve Funds mentioned above will be managed by a slowly changing Board of Trustees elected by the ministerial and lay members of the Conference, a majority of the Board being laymen.

(f) If the Conference will do its part as above outlined a group of laymen will provide such balance (estimated at $600,000.00) as may be needed to care for their accrued obligations of the church: that is, for the services already rendered by the retired ministers and by the husbands of the widows and by the fathers of the dependent children; and also the services rendered by the active members of the Conference which services will constitute a claim on the Conference on their retirement.

Resolutions Concerning an Annual Conference Foundation For Retired Ministers

Whereas a plan has been submitted to the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for an endowment fund foundation which involves the increase of funds for its retired ministers and other Conference claimant, which plan has been carefully matured by interested laymen and ministers including the Conference Commission and the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, and has the approval of prospective donors.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

(1) That the Detroit Annual Conference hereby approves and adopts the report of the endowment fund commission and the layman's plan for a system of annuity pensions for its retired ministers and other Conference claimants.

(2) That the offer of the anonymous friend of the Conference mentioned in the report be and is hereby gratefully accepted and that the Chairman of the Commission be instructed to express to this generous friend of the aged ministry the Conference's appreciation of his offer.

(3) That the Detroit Conference undertakes to do its part in meeting the conditions of this offer by completing the present endowment fund of $280,000.00 prior to March first, 1917.

(4) That following named persons be constituted a Commission to continue the work of the present endowment fund commission and be authorized to conduct a campaign for the proposed endowment in conjunction with representatives of the laymen's fund and that said commission serve as first Board of Trustees of the new foundation, with power to select its own officers and employees, and to proceed with the organization and incorporation of the Foundation.

2 ministers (representing the Conference). C. B. Allen, A. W. Stalker.

2 laymen (representing the present Commission). A. L. Parker, C. W. Leach.

2 laymen (representing the Detroit Conference Laymen's Association. A. L. Moore, G. A. Sherrard.

2 ministers (representing Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society). C. W. Baldwin, H. A. Field.

3 (to be designated by the Donor of the laymen's fund).

The succeeding and permanent Board of Management of the affairs of the foundation shall be composed of four ministers representing the Detroit Conference, and four laymen, representing the Detroit Laymen's Association, and three to be designated by the donors. Two of the four ministers representing the Detroit Conference, and two of the four laymen representing the Detroit Laymen's Association, or their successors, shall be elected for the term of one year. Two of the four ministers representing the Detroit Conference, and two of the four laymen representing the Detroit Laymen's Association shall be elected for terms of two years. Both of the above classes of managers shall serve till their successors are elected.

The said ministerial and lay representation on the permanent Board of Management of the Foundation, shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Detroit Conference and the Laymen's Association of the Detroit Conference.

(5) That the resident Bishop be requested to designate Special Commissioners not to exceed twelve in number, to aid the Commission in the campaign, as it may require.

(6) That the District Superintendents are hereby directed and authorized to arrange for the signing of the necessary agreements by the churches and pastors at the first quarterly conference of the Conference Year.

(7) That the Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society be requested to take action within a reasonable time preparatory to investing its funds in the new Foundation in compliance with the conditions of the offer made to the Conference, recognizing and adjusting the actuarial rights of its members as need may require.

(8) That in all the adjustments for this Foundation the Detroit Annual Conference recognizes that the connectional or general funds which come to it must be administered according to the disciplinary law concerning them, the amounts so administered to be reckoned on the individual claims of the several Conference claimants as determined by this Foundation. The Detroit Annual Conference and this Foundation recognizes the disciplinary obligations to the connectional Board of Conference claimants which obligations will be faithfully met in accordance with the Discipline. The Detroit Annual Conference and this Foundation and the adjustments of the present Conference organization necessary to complete the arrangements are authorized by the law of the Church as recorded in paragraph 334, section 2 of the Discipline of 1916 which reads as follows:

"Section 2. Annual Conferences are authorized too establish and maintain Investment Funds; Preachers' Aid Societies; and organizations and funds of similar character, under such names, plans, rules, and regulations as they may determine, the income from which shall be applied to the support of Conference Claimants. It is recommended that each Annual Conference provide an incorporated board to administer its permanent funds."

W. B. Buck, representing the unknown generous donor addressed the Conference. George Elliott, moved that the plan and resolution be adopted. J. E. Jacklin, Ames Maywood, E. M. Moore, Frederick Spence, Joseph B. Hingeley spoke favorably of the plan. A rising vote was taken, during the counting of which the Doxology was sung; it was unanimously in favor of the plan and of the resolution. 244 yeas, No nays. The Bishop announced his purpose to personally interview the great-hearted layman, whose generosity makes the plan possible. On motion he was requested to convey to him the heart-felt appreciation of the Conference.

Adjournment—The announcements were made and C. M. Stuart, President of the Garrett Biblical Institute pronounced the benediction.

Special Educational Committee—Frederick Spence presented the report of the Special Educational Jubilee Committee and moved its adoption:

We are pleased to learn in some detail of the plans and program of the Joint Committee of the Educational Jubilee of our Church, as outlined by Secretary Hancher. A nation-wide movement, looking to better kept campuses, reconstructed buildings, new buildings, enriched libraries, better equipped laboratories, better qualified faculties, larger student bodies, increased endowments, and a deeper and richer college spiritual life, is worthy our great church.

We note with no little pleasure that Albion College is included in the Educational Jubilee program. The additional $600,000 proposed by President Dickie and his trustees for the purposes named above, means much more to Michigan Methodism and to the Kingdom of our Lord, than many of us have thought or even dreamed.

We suggest a state-wide campaign on behalf of the Albion Jubilee that shall be sufficiently far-reaching to compass both our 125,000 members and our entire natural constituency. This movement should also be intensive enough to lay Albion on the hearts of our people as it was never done before.

In view of the convenience of the General Jubilee Committee of the Church, and in view of the many and varied interests of the Detroit Conference, we suggest and recommend to the campaign committee and to the trustees that the intensive, or so-called popular movement of this Jubilee program be deferred until early after the next session of the Detroit Conference, and that all plans adopted and methods employed for the prosecution of this work keep this recommendation in mind.

Albion College needs and must have this additional $600,000. Michigan Methodism, with its constituents and friends, is fully equal to the undertaking, and to it we commit ourselves as indicated above for the full share of the Detroit Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

THE SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL
JUBILEE COMMITTEE,

THEODORE S. HENDERSON,
Chairman,
D. W. SPRINGER,
Secretary.

President Samuel Dickie was introduced and spoke briefly regarding the report. Dr. John Hancher, Counsellor of the Board of Education, also addressed the Conference regarding this report. The report was adopted.

Committee Change—W. G. Nixon was substituted for E. M. Moore, who was excused on account of illness, on the Committee on Ordination and Consecration. The Bishop and others made announcements. Bishop Leete pronounced the benediction.

Appeal to the General Conference—Samuel Gilchriese presented the following appeal to the General Conference.

In case of the reception of the Rev. Geo. A. Walker from the Presbyterian Church into membership of the Detroit Annual Conference, September 18, 1916, and placing him on the retired list of the said Conference and granting him the annuity for twenty-eight years of previous service in the said Detroit Conference I appeal from the action of the Detroit Annual Conference for the following reasons:

1. That the said Rev. Geo. A. Walker has no valid claim only as established by his record of service since his coming to the Methodist Episcopal Church from the said Presbyterian Church.
2. That he has rendered no service to the said Detroit Conference and is not legally a claimant.
3. That by leaving the Methodist Episcopal Church and going to the service of the Presbyterian Church he thereby forfeited all previous claims, and that the Detroit Annual Conference cannot legally make him a claimant upon the Superannuated funds of the said conference only for such service which he has rendered since coming to us by his credentials from the said Presbyterian Church.

SAMUEL M. GILCHRIESE,

Appellant.

Session of Corporate Conference and Preachers Aid Society.—A session of the Corporate Conference, and of the Preachers Aid Society was held.

Endowment Fund for Supplies—D. H. Glass read the following petition, which was referred to the Endowment Fund Commission for their prayerful, and, if possible, favorable action.

Whereas twelve to fifteen per cent. of the pastors of the Detroit Conference are ordained Local Preachers, regularly employed every year as "Supplies," who cannot become "Conference Claimants," according to the new Discipline; and, whereas, it is the earnest desire of these "supplies" to provide for some annuity for themselves after so many years of actual service as pastors; and, whereas, they desire the help of the Detroit Conference, and will gladly cooperate by pledging at least two per cent of their cash salary towards securing funds to this end.

We therefore petition and request that this conference session authorize the District Superintendents to nominate a member of this Conference in securing funds to be used in creating a permanent Endowment Fund for the use and benefit of the Local Preachers of the Detroit Conference, who have supplied as pastors for fifteen years or more, and their beneficiaries.

AUDITING ACCOUNTS

We, your committee beg to report that the Missionary Accounts of the District Superintendents, the accounts of the Conference Treasurer and the Bureau of Transportation have been audited, and hereby certify that they are correct. We have also examined the books of the Secretary of the Retired Preachers Endowment Fund, and have found them correct. We commend the secretary, Bro. E. R. Rice, for having kept a complete set of books neatly and clearly written. The system covers every phase of the accounts.

We have not had access to the accounts of the financial secretary of the conference for the last year.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We rejoice in the increasing sense of the importance of higher education for our leaders and people in our great Church. Methodism was born in the halls of a University. We pledge the continuance of our devotion to the purposes of education historic in Methodism.

Albion College

We are glad to note the broadening plans for our own Albion College as outlined in the reports of the Special Jubilee Educational Committee. We heartily commend and congratulate Professor Clarence W. Greene for his achievement in the completion of Epworth Physical Science Laboratory at Albion College.

Theological Schools

We are glad to note the growing prosperity and increasing usefulness of our Methodist Episcopal Theological Seminaries. "Boston," "Drew," "Garrett," are worthy of the co-operation of the church in their task in preparing candidates for our ministry.

The Wesleyan Guild

The care of Methodist students at our state University is being met at Ann Arbor by the Wesleyan Guild in connection with the Ann Arbor Church. We urge the co-operation of the conference in the work of the Guild. We particularly recommend that our pastors notify the Student Pastor at Ann Arbor of any of their young people that may be enrolled in the University of Michigan as students.

Trustees of Albion College

The terms of H. Addis Leeson and James N. Simpson as trustees of Albion College expire at this time and we nominate as their successors respectively, for three years, H. Addis Leeson of Ypsilanti, and James N. Simpson.

DETROIT CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD

The number of Deaconesses connected with the work in this Conference is larger than last year. Nineteen have, during the year, labored under the jurisdiction of this Board, as follows: Miss H. Sophia Sprague, Superintendent of the Detroit Home, Miss Kate Blackburn and Miss Mary J. Harrison at the Fort Street Mission, Miss Ella Bateman and Miss Sarah Walburn at the Tillman Avenue Settlement, the Misses Deborah Kerfoot, Alice Shirey, Rosa Bradley, Cora Cole, Nellie Stevens, Edith Wilsey, Mabel Biggs, Teresa Lanyon at certain Detroit churches, Miss Maude Greenought and Miss Martha Collins at Flint Churches, and Miss Ella Lathrop at Grand Rapids; Miss Ethel Herren has been on leave of absence, and Miss Mabel Biggs has temporarily left the work on account of ill health. Of these Deaconesses, three have come to the work of this Conference during the year—the Misses Teresa Lanyon, Maude Greenought and Martha Collins. All of these women are licensed deaconesses except the Misses Gladys Pautz, and Sarah Walburn.

The property account of the Home is as follows:

Real Estate, 50 Seldon avenue	$12,500 00
Real Estate, 40 Selon avenue	6,000 00
Real Estate Tillman avenue	12,000 00
Furnishings	1,300 00
Investments and cash	2,500 00

Total property fund$34,800 00

The Endowment Funds are as follows:

Balance from last report	$ 1,850 00
Received during the year	3,478 00

Total endowment$ 5,328 00

The sources of income for the Detroit Home are as follows:

Received from Detroit Churches	$ 3,881 00
Rent, etc.	247 50
Interest on investments	141 26
Miscellaneous, from societies and individuals.....	408 25
Detroit District W. H. M. S.	509 30

Total$ 5,187 31

The terms of three members of the Board expire this year—those of the late G. O. Robinson, Mrs. L. G. Shaw and Mrs. G. H. Stalker. The following are nominated for a term of three years, Mrs. G. H. Stalker, Elmer Houser and Mrs. A. L. Parker. H. Lester Smith, John Skeman and King D. Beach are members for two years, and F. F. Fitchett, Ames Maywood and Mrs. J. S. Vernor for one year.

KING D. BEACH,
President Conference Deaconess Board.

EPWORTH LEAGUE COMMITTEE

Your committee is pleased to report a growing interest in the Epworth League throughout the conference, and while the report of the year does not record an increase in membership there is, nevertheless, an increased activity along missionary lines and community service.

We urge the pastors to organize the young people into chapters wherever possible and to give to existing chapters their best support.

In view of the fact that leadership is the present demand of church life, and the ability to serve efficiently and lead acceptably is to be desired we recommend that pastors urge the attendance of League leaders and members to the State Institute in 1917

The presence of the pastors at the State and District gatherings will do much to stimulate interest in the young people's work and encourage Epworthians in their effort to extend the Kingdom of God.

We also recommend wherever possible the holding of at least one Institute in League Methods and work in every chapter in this conference.

The Junior League membership shows an encouraging growth faithful and consecrated efforts in working this almost wholly unexplored field will enrich the Kingdom of God.

S. D. EVA,
J. H. OATEY.

COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN'S AID

The work of this society has been carried on for fifty years. The General Conference authorized and directed each pastor to observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary, February 11th, 1917, as a Semi-Centennial celebration.

As a result of the work of the society we have 350,000 colored members, and 2,000 ministers to supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. The 21 schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society with their 351 teachers and 5,804 students must be maintained. The solution of the race problem is not to be found wholly on industrial and commercial lines. The uplift of a race means in addition moral and spiritual standards in accordance with the teachings of Jesus, and these are secured only through the Christian school and the Christian Church. To maintain our present standards and advance them further, we must maintain our church schools.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor observe Lincoln Day as directed by the General Conference, and that in addition to raising the full apportionment for the work of the Society, an effort be made to secure subscriptions toward a Thankoffering of $100,000 to be used for new buildings and increased equipment sorely needed by these schools.

We further recommend that the program and literature prepared by the Society be distributed in our Sunday Schools and public congregations. This literature can be secured on request without cost by sending to the office of the Society at 220 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, a postal card.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. CHAPMAN,
K. D. BEACH,
Committee.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE REPORT.

Your Conference Committee, visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute respectfully report.

We found that Garrett held advanced ground in maintaining competent, efficient instructors, with an increased number attending this school of the prophets.

The adoption of the four quarters school year system has proven a great success with a registration of 220.

Fifty graduated during the year. They expected an attendance of 30 at the summer quarter but had 103.

The new dormitories are well advanced, and will be ready for occupancy about January first.

The plans of the Trustees for raising a fund of $1,000,000, one half of which is to be used in building and one half for safeguarding the endowment fund of the Institute are progressing.

We commend this movement heartily to the generosity and prayers of the church.

Our District Superintendents and Pastors, should not omit recommending our young men contemplating entering the ministry of our church, to take advantage of the opportunities thus afforded at Garrett for special instruction in their life work for our Lord and Master.

Respectfully submitted,

N. NORTON CLARK,
WM. EDGAR BROWN.

REPORT OF THE DETROIT CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

This society has performed a useful service during the year, the first year of its existence. The Historian has received eighteen letters of inquiry for historical data during the year, and has been able to supply the needed information.

The personal journal of the Rev. Judson D. Collins the first missionary sent by American Methodism to China is in the possession of the Historian who is transposing the Journal with the hope of its being of missionary value.

We urge the pastors to prepare an historical account of their charge or church with the record of pastors and such other features of the charge's history as will be of interest and value. It is important that the history of the church be preserved. Wherever such records or historical accounts are prepared a copy should be sent to the conference historian.

We request that wherever articles, papers, records or other historical data known to be in possession of churches, pastors, or friends, that the pastor acquaint the Historian of such material that a catalogue may be prepared of such historical material. We recommend that an historical service be held during the session of the next Conference and someone be designated to deliver an address on an historical theme, and a collection be taken at that service to aid the Historical Society in the prosecution of its work.

We recommend the election of the following officers:

Pres., Seth Reed.

Vice President, J. E. Jacklin.

Rec. Secretary, King D. Beach.

Treasurer—J. E. Mealley.

Historian and Corresponding Secretary, Sidney D. Eva.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Within the year past, two valued trustees of our Home have died, W. W. Washburn, D. D. and John Sweet, D. D. They were charter members of the Board and filled respectively the offices of president and treasurer. Five old people of the Home family have passed away, their average age being 78 years and 2 months and their average stay in the Home five years and two months. Fifteen new members have been received and the present number is 47. A change of superintendents has been made, Miss Anna Atkins being the present incumbent.

The new building, costing with its furnishings $20,500 has been completed and was dedicated by Bishop Wm. Burt, December 13th last. All the money to pay for it, save $1,000 has been raised.

The increase in the size of the family has increased the current expenses. For the year ending September 1, the direct living expenses were $8,400, to which must be added the allowances paid to members and annuities paid on special gifts, $1500, making a total of $9,900.

During the same period there has been received from:

Income on invested funds	$4,500
Transfers from admission fund	2,700
Personal gifts and miscellaneous sources	400
Collections from the churches	1,900
Total	$9,500
Deficit September 1, 1915	$ 900
Deficit increased during the year	400
Deficit September 1, 1916	$1,300

Over against this are to be credited the collections of the present month, including those now in the hands of the Conference Treasurer. If these amounts total $1,300 or more, they will cover this deficit and leave the Home free at the start of the new Conference year.

The Endowment Fund is steadily growing from gifts, legacies and residues from the admission fees of deceased members. It has advanced the past year from $36,500 to $40,200, an increase of $3,700.

The term of office of six trustees expires and the following are nominated for election: Seth Reed, E. P. Bennett, L. E. Lovejoy, F. W. Olds, Chas. W. Leech and Andrew L. Malott. The following four are nominated for election to fill out vacancies for an unexpired term of two years, caused by death and removal, Howard A. Field, H. A. Leeson, Dr. C. P. Wood and Merton Church.

H. T. DENNIS, Pres.,
J. E. JACKLIN, Cor. Secy.

RESOLUTIONS

Your committee on Resolutions unanimously submit to your consideration the following items:

First, we desire to record our deep satisfaction with the providential action of the General Conference which gave to Detroit an Episcopal residence, and then filled it with the Rev. Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, in whose strong character, magnetic personality, alert wisdom, and masterful executive ability, we thankfully recognize the essentials of eminent leadership, and are thus able to look forward with optimistic faith to great Methodist achievement in our area during the current Quadrennium. To him we give most hearty welcome, and pledge our love, fealty, and fullest co-operation.

Second, we wish to express our appreciative thankfulness to the Rev. Frank Foster Fitchett and his Official Board for placing at the disposal of the Detroit Conference, this beautiful, spacious temple with its thoughtful appointments and perfect conveniences for our annual session. To his people of Grand River Church and other co-operating churches, for their generous and kindly care in opening their homes, and giving the cordial hospitality which has made our stay in Detroit a most happy and enjoyable event. Also to the pastor and officials of the Scovel Presbyterian Church for their brotherly kindness in giving their commodious and well appointed church to the activities of our conference session.

Third, we also deem it a pleasurable duty to give recognition to the Rev. H. Addis Leeson, who has rendered faithful and highly efficient service to this conference in its secretaryship. The courtesy, correctness and ability of his administration will serve as a Conference Standard and will be long and gratefully remembered.

Fourth we acknowledge our indebtedness to the press of the city for according us fair treatment, readable reports and generous space in their columns.

Fifth, we record our devout thanksgiving to God for the presence of Rev. Wm. Sunday in Detroit and pray for him the fullest anointing of the Holy Spirit, the largest possible measure of evangelistic success, and pledge to him and his work our fullest co-operation.

W. H. MacCLENTHEN,
L. N. MOON,
J. S. WEST.

SOCIAL AND MORAL REFORM

The supreme task of the Christian Church is the realization of the Kingdom of God on earth. Not only the individual but human society is the subject of redemption in Christ. He came not only to save souls from condemnation and sin, but to save the world from social injustice, business dishonor, and political corruption. In His name we are to seek not only the cleansing of the personal conscience but the creation of a corporate conscience, the coming of the "new heavens and the new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness."

We accept the social creed of the churches as interpreted by the General Conference of 1916 and recommend that our churches generally give effect to this advanced platform of social service by such plans of community service as are indicated by a careful social survey of their fields, giving special attention to unemployment, housing, prison reform and recreation. We urge upon our several churches to make again the church the center of the social life of the community according to the recommendations of the County Church Commission of the Federal Council.

Temperance and Prohibition

We hereby accept the ringing platform of our church, adopted by the General Conference of 1916, as found in paragraph 523 of the Discipline, with its strong indictment of the beverage liquor traffic, its endorsement of total abstinence, its condemnation of the vicious license system, its plea for law enforcement, its uncompromising demand for the absolute prohibition of the whole traffic and its support of the proposal for national prohibition through amendment of the Federal Constitution.

Upon this platform we stand in the present crisis in the State of Michigan. The supreme task of the pastors and people of Michigan Methodism in the first six weeks of the conference year is to turn the whole strength of every church activity in favor of the proposed prohibition amendment. On November 7th, 1916, the people of Michigan should make the ballot box the coffin of the liquor traffic and the cradle of a new civilization.

We denounce the so-called Home Rule Amendment as a hypocritical use of a sacred principle of democracy to deceive the people into giving a larger liberty to this accursed traffic. The so-called respectable men who father it are the agents of infamous principals whom they dare not avow and are partners of the criminal underworld of our large cities and towns. Every decent voter will check the "NO" on this proposition.

Our Church Temperance Society has deserved and won our grateful confidence by its large and varied services during the last quadrennium. It has a specific sphere of its own, not to well filled by any other organization. This child of the church is entitled to the bounty of the church.

We commend the Anti-Saloon Leagues as a safe and effective agency through which Methodists can co-operate with other Christians in vigorous and united action against the common enemy. Its record of achievement is without parallel in the history of reform. We nominate as trustees to represent our own Conference in the Michigan Anti-Saloon League the following: Ministers—J. G. Haller and Howard A. Field; Laymen—S. S. Kresge and Geo. L. Adams.

The Lord's Day

The preservation of the weekly rest day in the complex conditions of modern life demands a deeper loyalty on the part of Christian people. They must use it for worship or they will lose it for rest. Its desecration by the ungodly is a great abuse but its use by professedly religious people as an opportunity for week-end recreation is more deadly to its perpetuity—the day need not be joyless but it ought to be kept holy.

International Peace

As soldiers in the army of the Prince of Peace, we shall fight to the end against that most colossal of crimes—war. Every democracy must oppose it as the most dangerous enemy of liberty. We favor the creation of a World Tribunal to which shall be submitted without exception, all questions of international dispute. Possibly no nation has as yet either the imagination or the patience to work out a consistent policy of passive resistance, which would, if adopted, by any strong nation, be a final blow to the crime of war. In the meantime while some form adequate of national defense may be necessary, the people should carefully scrutinize all so-called preparedness propositions, which so often falsify the facts and are promulgated by professional and commercial interests. An economical budget system in public finance, efficiency in administration and the conservation of manhood by salvation from corrupting vices and preventible disease would be a program of preparedness more effective than mighty armies and fleets.

GEORGE ELLIOTT.

COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

As an indication of the importance of the Sunday School as a feeder for the church, we find that the number of conversions of Sunday School scholars in the Detroit conference this year is reported as 5,000 while the increase in church membership is only 3,000.

Therefore it was fitting that the Sunday School work should have the important place given it on the program of this conference session, when Dr. Louis O. Hartman and Dr. Matthew J. Trenery of the Board of Sunday Schools impressed upon us the imperative need of teacher training and the great opportunities of the Organized Adult Bible Class.

We note with pleasure the excellent work of inspiration and direction accomplished by our own field worker, D. H. Glass, who has been holding institutes and visiting schools as an efficiency expert, and acknowledge the wisdom of assigning him for the next two months to the important task of lining up the Sunday Schools of Detroit and vicinity to get the largest possible results from the Sunday campaign.

SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS AID SOCIETY

Annual meeting of the Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church held in connection with the Conference session at the Grand River Ave. M. E. Church in Detroit, Thursday, September 14th, 1916.

Secretary-Treasurer Baldwin made a statement of the financial condition of the society showing that there is now in the Endowment Fund the sum of $103,531.49 of which sum $87,881.49 is productive the remaining $15,750.00 being subject to annuity charges which average five and three-fourths per cent annually.

The claims upon the interest fund are approximately $32,000.00. For the past four years a dividend of seventeen per cent. per annum has been paid. This year owing to some accumulations of interest in the treasury the dividend will be twenty-five per cent.

Trustees were elected to serve the coming year as follows: Seth Reed, J. E. Jacklin, L. E. Lovejoy, W. G. Nixon, E. D. Dimond, J. E. Mealley, H. A. Field, J. S. Steininger, C. W. Baldwin.

Officers were elected as follows: President, L. E. Lovejoy; Vice-President, W. G. Nixon; Secretary-Treasurer, C. W. Baldwin.

The society adjourned to meet on call later in the Conference session.

C. W. BALDWIN,
Secretary.

Adjourned Meeting, Monday, Sept. 18th, 1916

Secretary, C. W. Baldwin presented the following resolution:

Whereas; The Detroit Annual Conference through its Endowment Fund Commission has entered upon a movement looking toward the creation of a new corporate board which shall hold and administer all funds for the benefit of Conference Claimants in this Conference. And, Whereas; this action includes a plan for raising the sum of about One Million Dollars as an Endowment Fund for the benefit of Conference Claimants in the Detroit Conference in which sum shall be included all monies now held by the various departments of the Conference.

Therefore, Be it Resolved; That this society will co-operate in this movement and will devote its funds to the said purpose and the Board of Trustees of this society is hereby authorized to turn over the funds of this society to the new corporation whenever it shall appear that the purpose of the Conference in raising the anticipated fund to a sufficient amount is accomplished. Provided; That the purposes of this society and its present obligations shall be fully safeguarded and carried out by the new corporation. And, Be it further resolved; That the Officers and Board of Trustees of the society are hereby authorized to designate two of their number to represent the society on the new Endowment Fund Commission and to serve on the first Board of Trustees of the new Foundation.

These resolutions were adopted and Howard A. Field and Charles W. Baldwin were elected to serve on the new commission and on the board of Trustees of the new Foundation as hereinbefore mentioned.

The meeting adjourned.

C. W. BALDWIN,
Secretary.

STUDIES FOR LOCAL PREACHERS

No questions on the Local Preachers' Course will be provided unless the chairman is notified at least six weeks before the examination.

Regulations

ADMISSION AND PROMOTIONS

1. The Conference has voted that the District Superintendents present as candidates for admission on trial into the Conference the names of only such persons as have attained the equivalent of a twelve grade high school education.

(See Discipline Par. 596, Sec. 2.)

2. Each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full membership, or for ordination as a local Deacon or a local Elder, must appear before the Committee on Ministerial Equipment during the first days of the Conference Session.

3. According to the ruling of the Bishop no person can be received on trial nor elected to orders while conditioned in any study. See also Discipline paragraphs 566, sections 1 and 2, and 596, sections 1, 2 and 3. No person will be recommended by the Board to pass from the studies of one year into those of the next year if conditioned on more than one study unless three-fourths of the Board present shall vote for such advancement.

CREDITS

4. All certificates of credit as provided for in the Discipline (Par. 597, sections 1, 4, 5 and 6) should be sent direct to the Registrar early in the year.

5. All requests for credit as provided for in the Discipline (Par. 597, sections 2 and 3) should be sent to the examiners in the respective subjects, who will forward same together with their recommendations to the Registrar. These requests must be made at least four weeks before Conference in order to secure satisfactory adjustment.

6. By motion of the Board credit will be withheld if books loaned from the W. H. M. S. loan library have not been returned.

THE EXAMINATIONS

7. There are three examinations during the year. The first is on the last Tuesday in April; the second on the first Tuesday in August, and the third on the Tuesday before Conference convenes. The places of holding the first and second examinations are as follows: Detroit, Martha Holmes Church; Adrian, Ypsilanti, Durand, Lapeer, Bad Axe, Saginaw, Jefferson Avenue Church; Bay City, First Church; Alpena, Cheboygan, Sault Ste. Marie, Escanaba, Iron River, Ironwood, Negaunee, and Calumet, First Church.

8. All who fail to qualify for advancement are required to meet the Board in person or if not in attendance on Conference to send to the Registrar a written explanation. The Board wishes to keep in close touch with all undergraduates and assist them whenever possible.

9. In case any candidate fails in examination on any subject the Board shall review his record for final marking. The candidate may appear before the Board in person if he so desires.

10. All examinations shall take place in the presence of a member of the Board or other supervisor appointed by the Chairman. Said Supervisor shall collect the fees, papers, sermons and essays and forward them immediately to the Registrar. He shall see that no papers are signed and that the duplicate record slip is properly filled out and attached to each paper.

THE EXAMINER

11. Each Examiner shall prepare and send to the Chairman at least one month before the April examination two different sets of at least ten questions on each subject assigned him; one set to be used at the mid-year examination and the other to be used at the Conference examination.

12. Each Examiner is expected to furnish such information and suggestions concerning the books or subjects assigned him as will be most helpful to the students preparing for the examination. Students are invited to consult personally or by letter with the Examiners concerning any difficulties connected with the respective studies.

13. The Examiner shall grade and mark the papers, essays and sermons on a scale of 100, and the candidate must attain a standing of 70 in order to pass. After the Examiner has reported his markings to the Registrar he shall have no authority to change the marking without consent of the Board.

14. The Registrar is authorized to give to each student receiving a passing mark of 70 an additional 5 per cent. on all examinations taken at the regular April and August examinations and at the Summer School Assembly.

SERMONS AND COLLATERAL READING

15. Sermons and reports on collateral reading should be handed in by the last Tuesday in January. Papers sent in after the August examination cannot receive the additional 5 per cent.

16. Sermons and examination papers shall not be signed, but to each a duplicate record slip properly filled out should be attached. The Registrar shall forward all papers to the proper examiner without the candidate's name, but identified by the number corresponding to the number of the candidate's name on the Registrar's record. All papers shall be the property of the examiners.

17. By order of the Conference each candidate is required to pay annually, at his first examination, a fee of one dollar. Unless the fee is paid no papers of the candidate can be forwarded by the Registrar to the Examiners.

18. The board heartily endorses the Summer School Assembly of undergraduates and urges every graduate of Detroit Conference to avail himself of these opportunities. Watch the Advocate for announcements.

REV. FRANKLIN BRADLEY

Death came very peacefully to Rev. Franklin Bradley at five a. m. May 22nd, 1916, at his home in Clarkston. He had been a great sufferer for more than two years from cancer. But his patience and sweetness of spirit to the last, never questioning why a loving Heavenly Father permitted such an affliction after an exceptional life of devotion to his work, was the strongest kind of evidence to God's sustaining power.

Brother Bradley was born in Chatham, a village ten miles south of Springfield, Ill., June 4, 1844, and died May 22, 1916, aged seventy-one years. From an early age he had to look out for himself and as he chose the best, first in life equipment and later in usefulness to others, in attaining the noblest character he has written the truth of his Saviour's teachings indelibly into many lives.

In 1859 he went by invitation to an uncle in Richland, Kalamazoo county, who urged him to make it his home. From here he attended the Prairie Seminary and later graduated from the Kalamazoo high school. After working two years in Illinois to obtain funds, he entered the University of Michigan in 1865. Though obliged to stop one year to earn money, yet he graduated from the university in 1870 with the degree of B. A. and in 1872 took his Master's degree.

He was a teacher in a boys' school in Detroit two years. It was while here he became convinced the Lord wanted him in the ministry.

In 1872 he was received on trial by the Detroit conference, and in two years received the full membership. His pastorates were Lexington, Port Hope, South Lyon, Henrietta, Napoleon, Oscoda; a second pastorate at South Lyon, Northville, Morenci, Grass Lake, Orion, Clarkston, Williamston, Wayne and Gaines; a total of forty-two years, averaging three years at a place.

October 9, 1873, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Folkerts, of Algonac, Mich. Two children, Mrs. Mary Osgood, of Pensacola, Fla., and Mr. Frank Bradley, of Chicago, were born to them. During his pastorate at Clarkston Mrs. Bradley died, and later he was married to Miss Lettie Brown, of Clarkston. His wife, two children and six grandchildren survive him.

He, like his Lord, went about doing good, and as a friend said: "His finest qualities are not placed in a show window for the public to gaze at, they are exhibited when necessary for some good purpose." But those who got close enough to really know him in spirit, found the charming wearing qualities of a patient, faithful, zealous Christian.

We shall miss him and mourn the loss, but his gain is great and our joy thereat sweetens the sadness, for he has gone to the Master whom he loved unto the end, and the coveted welcome is his, "Well done, good and faithful servant, * * * enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

The funeral was conducted from his late home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. J. E. MacKenzie read the Scripture and offered prayer. Dr. J. G. Haller preached a most beautiful sermon from Matt. 25-21. Rev. N. N. Clark, who joined the conference in the same class with Brother Bradley, spoke very feelingly of their friendship. Dr. C. J. Sutherland sang "Crossing the Bar" and "Lead Kindly Light." A sketch of his life was read and the body laid to rest in Lakeview cemetery, Clarkston.

REV. JOSEPH FRAZER

Joseph Frazer was born in Dramore, County Down, Ireland, March 15, 1840, and died in Flint, Mich., November 3, 1915. He was the son of Hugh and Mary Jamison Frazer, of Scotch lineage, hence the designation "Scotch-Irish." In 1865 he entered the ministry of the Irish Methodist Church and preached two years in that connection. In 1867 he came to America and joined the Detroit conference on probation. March 17, 1868, he married Miss Helen A. Gilfillan, of South Lyon, Mich., the first pastoral charge to which he was appointed. The surviving members of the family are: Mrs. Joseph Frazer, wife of the deceased; Eslie G. and George E., sons, residing in Flint; Mrs. Marion Lynch, a daughter residing in Fairberg, Neb.; Claude C., a son residing in Detroit.

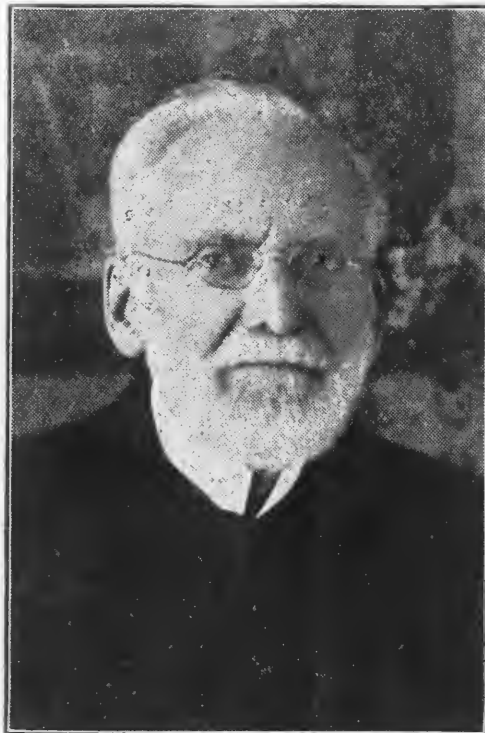

Brother Fraser was received into the Detroit conference in full connection in 1868. His appointments were: 1867, South Lyon; 1868-1896, Hamburg; 1870-1871, Trenton; 1872-1874, Houghton; 1875-1877, Hudson; 1878-1879, Houghton; 1880, Chesaning; 1881-1882, Northville; 1883, Holly; 1884, superannuated; again entering the active work, 1885-1886, Fenton; 1887-1889, Flushing; 1890-1891, Lake Linden; 1892-1893, Marquette; 1894-1895, Monroe; 1896-1899, presiding elder Lake Superior district. He was superannuated in 1900, since which time he has resided in Flint.

Brother Frazer's illness was somewhat protracted, and at times he suffered much, but with great patience and resignation. No more beautiful spirit than his was ever shown during these trial days. He communicated with friends all along through the valley, and the Shepherd was ever consciously near him. His memory was filled with many beautiful passages of Scripture, precious promises, the oftenest repeated, as a climax to all else, being, "Thy will be done." He sometimes prayed for release, but would add, "Thy will be done." A remarkable incident occurred during his closing days. In a vision he was in the sanctuary. He was conducting service. He announced a hymn and joined the company in singing. He prayed. He preached, his sermon subject being, "The Patience of Job."

Before leaving the home at 925 Detroit street, prayer was offered by Dr. C. W. Baldwin. The service was held in the Garland Street church, where he was a regular attendant and an inspiration to all pastors and members. Tributes were paid to the memory of Brother Frazer by W. H. Rider and C. W. Baldwin.

Joseph Frazer was unique in his own personality. He was distinguished by the presence of those varied elements which, while they inhere in all men more or less, marked his character in particular. Did he love? He loved much. Did he have faith in God? Great and strong. Did he have hope? He was truly "saved by hope." Did he have emotion? Not that of tears often or much demonstration. He had emotion, but that which is "too deep for sound or foam." Did he have convictions? Clear, definite and a courage with them. Nor would this tribute to Joseph Frazer be sufficient without a reference to his beliefs. He was in harmony with his church, but also with his age. He was a diligent observer, reader and thinker to the last. With his whole soul he believed in the Fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man and the kingdom of Jesus Christ. He believed that the whole human family was in a glorious redemptive process, and while he did not dogmatize about it, he hoped for, and believed in, an ideal universe—that "far off sublime event to which the whole creation moves." One other belief of this man of God will answer well for a closing word for this too brief sketch. He believed that death and resurrection were synonymous terms; that "that which drew from out the boundless deep returned again home;" that as we see in nature, "first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear," God's law was from less to more; that at what is called death we emerge into a larger consciousness. No wonder he longed to "depart and be with Christ, which is far better."

REV. W. H. RIDER, D. D.

REV. JOHN SWEET, D. D.

Forty-two years of his serious and industrious life were spent in Michigan, five years in Canada, and twenty-four in his native England. He was born in June, 1844, in Devonshire, near the Welch border, about twenty miles from Cardiff, and grew up in the atmosphere of a high-minded and religious people.

While he came to earth in a Congregationalist home, he early chose for himself the fellowship of the Wesleyans. Their vital faith and piety and their usefulness matched his impulses very evenly. He exhorted and preached and lectured before he got out of his teens. While his training, after he left school, was commercial, his tastes were for books rather than business. The impulses of his nature were for learning, for religion and the service of moral and spiritual causes.

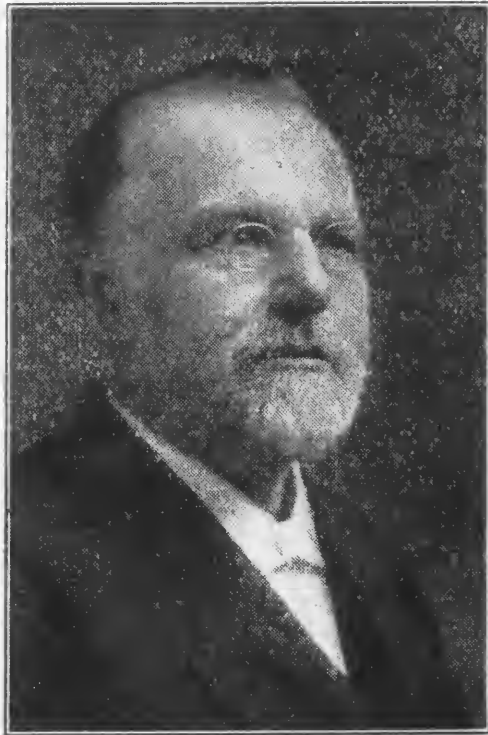

When he reached Ontario at the age of twenty-four he entered the ministry and served two pastorates and also did public temperance work to a considerable degree. In the fall of 1873 he was convinced that the United States was the land of opportunity for him, and he came to Algonac, and as supply pastor preached one year. From the first to the last his ministry was an ascending one and his position in the conference and his influence in church affairs was never higher than when he came to the end of his effective years of preaching. To an unusual degree he was the personal friend of his colleagues. His death is felt to be a personal loss to three-fourths of the conference membership. His views on pending questions were accorded great respect and no man of later years could carry by personal force a larger vote in the conference than he.

His ministry was essentially a sturdy one. He had no toleration or excuse or palliation for great wrongs, for unjust and unrighteous practices, or for known vices. He smote them early and late. The workers of iniquity had no rest or peace in the town, while he was pastor. His love of righteousness and his desire to see the reign of justice prevail and his longing for the adjustment and operation of all human affairs according to the kingdom of God were so strong that his soul burned with volcanic hatred of evil and with consuming love for humanity. Like Job he was an "upright" man and "one that feared God and eschewed evil." He could say with the Psalmist, "I hate every evil way." If only a single word were to be used in characterizing him, it might well be the word "righteousness." In his vision Calvary never obliterated Sinai; the gospel did not destroy the moral law, but amplified it and toned it with infinite love. Our Lord's words, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill," he heartily believed.

He was a man of strong and weighty personality, a warm-blooded, clear-headed and stout-hearted manly man. He was

Our Lord's words, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill," he heartily believed.

He was a man of strong and weighty personality, a warm-blooded, clear-headed and stout-hearted manly man. He was one of that class of men who ought to be estimated by weight rather than by numbers. In him conscience was sensitive and alive; he held it sacred, and preferred loss of other things rather than the loss of a good conscience. He scorned to do an unfair thing. His combination of faculties furnished the stuff out of which martyrs are made. In spirit and purpose and practice he is to be ranked with these heroes of the Christian faith.

Religious experience with him was ethical rather than emotional. His love of God and his kingdom swayed his whole soul and ruled his entire life, and was too sacred to be toyed with. He did not believe in an emasculated gospel. He wanted the substance and practice of preaching to lay hold of men whose sins were "as scarlet" and render them as "white as snow;" his gospel reached the lowest sinner and made him a saint. He often preached at the "Rescue mission;" he loved it, because it grappled with sinners at their worst. His death removes a prophet of clear voice, of no uncertain message and of great power. The church trusted and honored him; he was made a presiding elder, elected to General Conferences and designated by the college as doctor of divinity, but these were only incidental features in the passage through the world of a strong personality. He himself was always greater than these externals. For years he was the custodian and administration of conference endowment funds amounting to $100,000, and every dollar was safe and wisely handled. He was also the judicious treasurer of the Old People's Home at Chelsea and one of its founders.

He probably erred in his steady prosecution of labor, without taking a rest at intervals. He never allowed himself a vacation; he had no recreations or diversions; every day was a working day. Perhaps he would have lengthened his days materially had he broken the monotony of labor with rest and pleasure. He was a rare man, a strong personality, a clear mind and a large heart. His memory is a precious legacy. One brother, one sister, one son and three daughters remain. They all ministered with loving devotion during his illness, and he was grateful every day that he had such a gracious family.

Dr. Sweet died peacefully at his home Thursday October 28th, after failing health for some months. He was in his seventy-second year, and had been a member of Detroit conference for forty-two years. The funeral services at the home on Saturday afternoon were in charge of

J. E. Jacklin, with J. M. Gordon, J. B. Oliver, F. F. Fitchett and W. M. Ward assisting. Ministerial brethren acted as bearers, the burial being in Woodlawn cemetery.

Dr. Sweet's fields of service in Detroit conference were as follows: Algonac, L'Anse, Houghton, Lake Linden, Phoenix, Rockland, Caseville, Flushing, Gaines, Mt. Clemens, Calumet, Lake Superior District one year, Owosso, Saginaw district two years, Detroit—Mary Palmer, Detroit District six years. He superannuated in 1911.

REV. LUCIUS SATON TEDMAN

Born in the state of New York, December 6, 1831, and died at Canandaigua, Mich., April 26, 1916, aged 85 years. His early life was spent upon his father's farm near Oxford, Mich., where he met, and upon December 6, 1855, married Sarah M. Hovey. Soon after their marriage his wife was influenced to become a Christian, which made such an impression upon him that he too yielded. His conversion was marked and demonstrative. The beginning of an entirely new era to him, soon followed by a definite call to preach the gospel. He joined the Detroit conference in 1861, spending in all thirty-nine years in the active itinerary, serving sixteen charges. His appointments were: Capac, North Branch, Otisville (then Forrest), Midland, Dryden, Hadley, Highland, Davison, Byron, Mt. Morris, Davisburg, Dansville, Stockbridge, South Lyons, Dixboro, Carlton and Medina. He was returned to Otisville and Hadley for a second term.

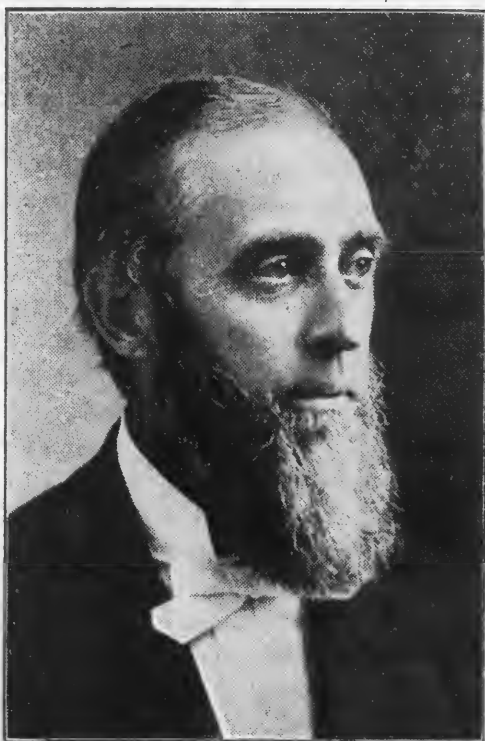

He was sound in Methodist theology, firm in administration of church and discipline, and deep in Christian experience. His preaching was from his experience of an evangelistic type, in which the logical abounded rather than the imaginative. Having a sensitive, nervous make-up, which was easily aroused, often manifesting itself in tears in his sermons. Thus we have the secret of his power which made him a spiritual up-builder wherever he went, viz., his loyalty to God and a deep religious experience, and his messages proclaimed with the intensity that his emotional nature gave him.

In his earlier ministry he had revivals on all charges, doing his own preaching. Later he had the same success by engaging the help of others.

In 1898 he took superannuated relation, settling in a home at Canandaigua, an appointment on his last charge, where he lived quite comfortably and happily. Several winters ago he suffered severely from la grippe, from which he never wholly recovered, and which was the beginning of a gradual decline. In this weakened condition the death of his wife nearly four years ago, came as a great shock, and brought untold loneliness to him, and he looked forward to the homegoing with intense longings, yet willing to stay if God willed it so. He was tenderly cared for by his eldest daughter, Miss Carrie L. Tedman. His last sentence, a day before his death, to an inquiry if the Lord seemed near, was, "More than that, he is my intimate friend." His faith is a rich legacy to his children who survive him. They are: Rev. Arthur S. Tedman, of Weston; Carrie L. Tedman, of Canandaigua; Dr. Lucius Tedman, of Summit City, Mich.; Mrs. Cora Avery, of Kelden, Mich.; Mrs. Lillian Rice, of Canandaigua, and Mrs. Grace Stone, of Medina. Victor, the oldest son, died in infancy, and Mrs. Ada McLauthlin, a daughter, in early womanhood.

The funeral was held from the church at Canandaigua, conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. Rowe, April 28. The following neighboring pastors were present, acting as bearers and making brief and appropriate addresses: Rev. C. M. Thompson, Rev. Simon Schofield, Rev. R. E. Mitchell, Rev. Horace Palmer, Rev. William L. B. Collins and Rev. Mr. Jones, of the Medina Baptist church.

WILLIAM WALLACE WASHBURN

A cultured Christian gentleman was Dr. Washburn, an honor to the ministry and an ornament to our human kind; earth was enriched in having him and heaven is gainer in receiving him.

If dying were always as beautiful as in his case, we would soon cease to dread it; with brief illness and slight suffering, in ripeness of age, his children grown and in their own homes; his companion awaiting him for a twelvemonth at the heavenly portals, his life-work done, and well done, his name fragrant wherever pronounced, his body well worn with toil and years, his mind as clear as crystal, his heart as warm as an evangelist's, his soul white like the angels, his character quite as flawless as is to be found among mortals, he quietly changed worlds June the 22nd, ending a pilgrimage begun November 9, 1837.

Dr. Washburn spent two-thirds of his seventy-eight and one-half years in this state, his preparatory years being mostly lived in his native state, Vermont. College student, teacher and preacher was he all the days of his more than half century, so that his life here was a public one constantly open for inspection. Those who knew him, easily knew what manner of man he was, for there was no disguise about him, and no inconsistencies; he did not understand duplicity and was as transparent as a child. If we were to describe him and were limited to one word, we would not say, eloquent, learned, powerful, great, but we would probably say "good." Goodness was his singular and crowning quality. He was a man of intellectual parts, of fine common sense, rich in scholarship, of charming public address and of other abilities of a high order, and yet his most outstanding trait was the fineness of his soul's make-up, his love, kindness and unselfishness. His genuine goodness played like a flame through all his powers and utterances and actions; it colored and inspired and encompassed his life. It shone in his countenance, gleamed in his eyes, mellowed the tones of his voice and showed in his walk and carriage and handshake. The goodness of the man was unmistakable. Strangers would at once pick him out as a Christian, a follower of Jesus Christ.

But goodness is of different types in different temperaments. In a big-hearted man it does not manifest itself in the same form it does in the restrained and dignified nature, nor in the nervous and emotional person. Good men may be quite dissimilar. Goodness when concentered in life is of several varieties. In Dr. Washburn it was manifest in such virtues as gentleness, sympathy, patience, trustfulness, amiability and benevolence. As he looked out on the field of humanity, he found no one to hate, no one to be indifferent about and on every one rested his love and benediction. He was a stranger to revenge and suspicion and bitterness. His heart ached for suffering humanity and he longed to see every mortal blessed by the gospel of Christ and rich in divine providences. He reminds one of Longfellow's summary of the aim of our Lord's ministry: "Strong as a man and pure as a child is the sum of the doctrine, which the divine One taught and suffered and died on the cross for." Dr. Washburn's goodness was childlike in its sincerity, manlike in its strength.

The churches to which he was assigned show something of the ability and mettle of the man. He began on a big rural circuit, Denton, went successively to Fenton, Simpson, Ypsilanti, Detroit district, Cass Avenue, Monroe, Saginaw, East Saginaw, Garland Street, Milford and Romeo, superannuating in 1904. He was thirty-five years in the effective ranks of the Detroit conference, nearly twelve years on the retired list, either preaching or writing all these twelve years, and during ten of them was active as the president of the Old People's Home. The first three years of his conference relationship were in Minnesota, where he went in 1867, to aid in organizing the state university, of which he was the first president.

He set out in life to teach. By instincts and gifts he was a teacher. In his ministry he was an expositor. He was at the schoolmaster's desk in his teens. When he came to Michigan it was with his eye on the state university, from which he graduated just fifty years ago. During his college course he was teaching in Sunday schools and preaching in school houses. In his senior year he was placed in charge of the public schools of Adrian and married at this time on Christmas day, 1866.

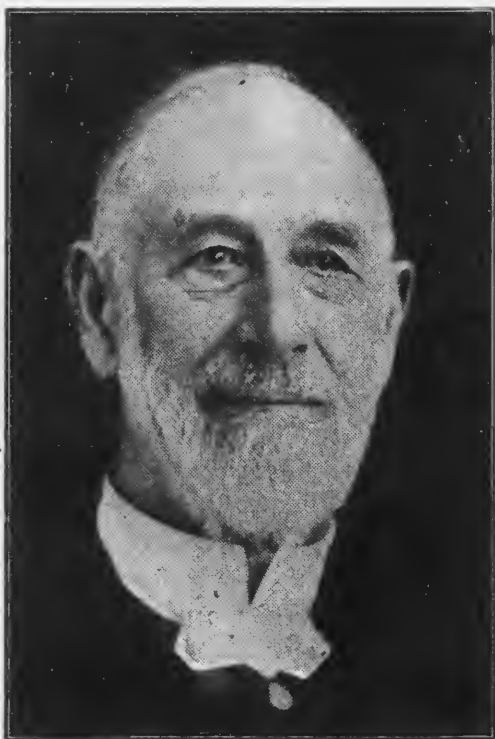

Dr. Washburn had been in usual health, though not vigorous of late, up to the very day of his death. He attended the preachers' outing at Boblo Park on June 13, and enjoyed the day. On the Tuesday before his death he was at the Book Rooms and bought a new book, thus showing his mental activity and interest to the last. On Thursday morning he was seized with a sinking spell, and at four o'clock in the afternoon his heart failed to act, and his sweet spirit took its flight to the realms of eternal bliss. The funeral services were held at Cass Avenue church (of which Dr. Washburn was the first pastor) on Monday, June 26, at 2 p. m. Dr. Charles Bronson Allen, district superintendent, was in charge. Dr. J. E. Jacklin read a singularly appropriate Scripture lesson, 1 Corinthians thirteen. Rev. W. M. Ward offered a fitting and feeling prayer, Mrs. Frances Doyle sang two choice selections, "There need be no shadow" and "Sleep on, beloved." Dr. George S. Hickey, (fellow-student with Dr. Washburn in the University of Michigan fifty years ago) read a fine appreciation of the life and qualities of our brother—a real classic in its discriminating characterization. Dr. George Elliott followed with a glowing and just tribute to the character and ministry of this saint of God.

The services were concluded at Elmwood cemetery, where the burial took place. Many ministerial brethren, with other appreciative friends, were present at the services.

Dr. Washburn is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joseph

Marshall and Mrs. Mary Bruckner, both residing in Highland Park. One daughter died a few years ago. A sister of Dr. Washburn, Mrs. A. M. Pryor, still survives. Mrs. Washburn, (who was Miss Cleora A., daughter of Dr. I. M. Towne, of Ypsilanti) died about a year ago.

REV. HENRY S. WHITE

Henry Sumner White was born April 7, 1828, at North Hoosick, N. Y. He was the son of Newman Sumner White and Abigail Stark, a granddaughter of Capt. John Stark, who commanded a company of militia at the battle of Bennington. He followed the trade of his father, a blacksmith. He studied at the Concord School of Theology, now connected with the Boston University, graduating in 1851.

After preaching in Donaldsonville, South Manchester, East Hartford, Providence, Newport and New Bedford, building there the Elm Street church, he enlisted in the Fifth Rhode Island heavy artillery, serving two years. He was captured near Newbern, N. C., and was held in the southern prisons of Andersonville, Macon, Savannah and Charleston, S. C.

Upon his return he was transferred to the Detroit conference, building the church at Ann Arbor. From there he was transferred to the Wisconsin conference and appointed to the Milwaukee charge and next was appointed presiding elder of the Fon-du-lac district, which he served four years. In 1876 he returned to the Detroit conference, and was appointed to the following charges: Marquette, Alpena, Port Huron, where he rebuilt the church after it was wrecked by the cyclone of 1879; Vassar, Flint, where he built the Garland Street church; Romeo and Milford.

He retired from the ministry in 1893, removing to Romeo, where he has since resided. He was pastor of seventeen churches in five states and was thirty-eight years in the active work.

He was prominent in Grand Army circles and was department chaplain for a number of years. He was a member of Gen. Alger's staff at the national encampment.

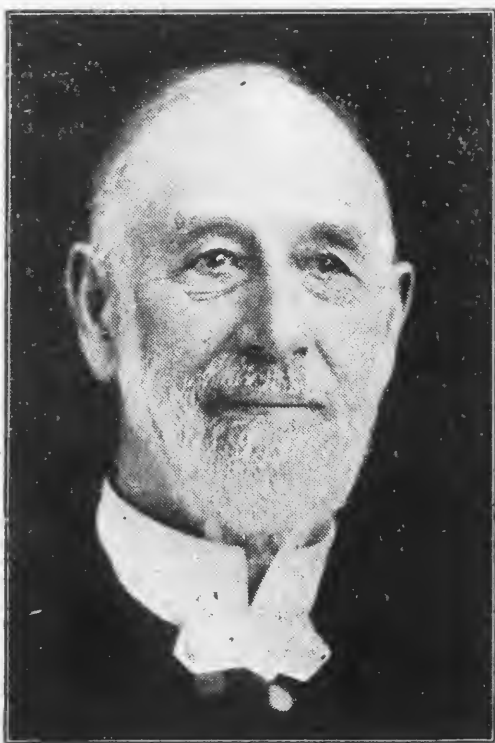

He was married August 4, 1882, at Francistown, N. H., to Miss Nancy Holmes Houston Hutchinson. Seven children were born unto them, two girls and five boys. Two sons remain. Frank Newman, of Romeo, and William Stearns, of New York City. Also one grandson, Harry Hall White, of Cleveland, Ohio.

His theological library was given some time ago to the Sam Houston College (colored), Austin, Texas, and from his limited resources he gave $500 to the theological seminary at Bareilly, India.

Perhaps in all lives there is an especially prominent line of continuity of character. In Mr. Lincoln it was honesty. In Gen. Lee it was strength. In Gen. Grant it was determination. Other lines were strongly marked, but these were especially so. In Brother White this line of continuity was determination. Two other supporting qualities were very evident, viz., faith and courage. He believed God and in that faith he found a courage that enabled him to face propositions, from which others of lesser faith would have shrunk. With this foundation, his determination carried efforts to a successful issue that would have meant defeat to one less resolute. This will be fully recognized by any one who was familiar with the situation that faced him in erection of the churches at Ann Arbor and Flint, but still more so, at Port Huron, where the new church had scarcely been completed when the cyclone of 1879 wrecked it, and it fell to Brother White to face the task of its rebuilding.

His going is not an occasion of grief, but rather of rejoicing. He had served his day and generation. His life was an eminently useful one. He is now free from his sufferings. He has gone to his coronation. Friends will weep, yet not for him, but for their own loneliness. We can almost hear him say to those who are left behind:

"Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark."

A very quiet funeral was held at the home of his son, Dr. F. N. White, at Romeo, on December 15, 1915, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. M. Ward. Interment at Ann Arbor, where some four years ago Sister White was laid to rest.

MRS. WM. R. BENTON

In the death of Mrs. Catherine M. Benton, widow of the Rev. Wm. H. Benton, which occurred at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Delia Emery, of Pontiac, Mich., on Sunday, June 11, Oakland county has lost another pioneer. Mrs. Benton was born in Lyon township, August 1, 1838. She was the oldest child of James B. and Clarissa Bradley. She was educated in the public schools and the Ypsilanti Normal College. In 1865 she was united in marriage with Edward Crandall and they settled on a farm two miles north of Salem village. Here Mr. Crandall was killed by a falling tree May 1, 1892. Mrs. Benton continued to manage the farm until her marriage with Rev. Wm. H. Benton, August 15, 1895. He then served charges at Salem, Trenton, Delray and Napoleon at which last place he died December 17, 1907. Since his death Mrs. Benton has spent most of her time with her niece, Mrs. Laura Nollar, of Kalispell, Mont., and her sister, Mrs. Delia Emery, at whose home she died. Mrs. Benton is also survived by two brothers, Mr. Chas. H. Bradley, of Port Arthur, Texas, and Mr. James B. Bradley, of South

Lyon, at whose residence the funeral was held Tuesday, June 13 with interment in Walker cemetery. At the service Rev. M. H. Bartram spoke feelingly of his many years of happy association with Brother and Sister Benton. Rev. Mr. Hill, of S. Lyon assisted in the services.

MRS. J. W. CRIPPEN

Mrs. Esther E. Crippen was born at Pleasant Lake, Mich., June 8, 1838, and died at Ann Arbor, Mich., April 6th, 1916. Her father, Elias Withey, was an old time Methodist and his home was the preacher's refuge at all times. Mrs. Crippen's first parsonage experience was at Freemont, where she had previously been a teacher. A woman of wonderful resource, when times were hard, and the outlook discouraging, she always "managed somehow" and kept the domestic machinery going; and moreover kept many of the anxieties away from her husband, to whom such things loomed large.

For twenty-five years she lived in Methodist parsonages and put the impress of her indomitable spirit of cheer upon hundreds of lives. On every charge the Doctor thought first of Mrs. Crippen, when a nurse was needed, and many a valuable life was saved through her skillful and unceasing care.

In 1883 she went to Ann Arbor on account of her husband's failing health, where it became possible, to build a home of their own. And there she died, surrounded by loving friends, whose pleasure was to supply her every need, and gratify every wish.

She was happy, and while loyal to the old ways, always ready to adjust herself to the new ones, if they ran in the right direction. She had been interested in every kind of good work—the Sunday School, the W. H. M. S. and especially the Y. W. C. A. at Ann Arbor, which she organized and of which she was for some time the general secretary.

For the last ten years increasing lameness made her much of a "shut in," but in spite of that, her interest in life and the world's doings never flagged; and the day she had the fall, from which she never recovered, she was as young in heart as ever. It was impossible to realize that she lacked but a few weeks of seventy-eight.

HATTIE CRIPPEN.

MRS. JOHN H. McCUNE

Suddenly, while riding on a train with her husband to revisit her old home in Ohio, Mrs. John H. McCune, beloved wife of the pastor of Leesville church, Detroit, was stricken, and died fourteen hours later without regaining consciousness.

Ora S. Irons, was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, August 15, 1858. On August 2, 1881, she was married to John H. McCune, and came directly to Michigan. Here in various charges for thirty-five years she has given capable and devoted assistance in every kind of church work. Cultured, capable and conscientious, she was a true helpmeet to her husband in the Christian ministry, a model pastor's wife. To them were given four children; and in the home this devoted wife and mother poured out the wealth of her love and devotion. Both husband and children arise up and call her blessed.

Six years ago, while at Calumet, Mich., Mrs. McCune was stricken by an illness which made her public services impossible. But in her home she has remained the inspiration of all who knew her.

On July 7, while with her husband on the way to visit different places of her childhood interest in Ohio, she became ill on the train. At Toronto, Ohio, she was taken to the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. Dunn. Every medical effort, however, failed to fully restore her to consciousness, and at noon the next day God took her to himself. She is survived by her husband, Rev. John H. McCune, and her four children; Mrs. George C. Vincent, Detroit; Mrs. J. M. Walters, Fargo, N. Dak.; Myrtle F. and Merrill J. McCune, Detroit.

The funeral services were held at the home, 42 East Bethune avenue, on Tuesday, July 11, attended by many friends. They were in charge of Dr. C. B. Allen, district superintendent. Rev. H. G. Pearce sang two appropriate selections. Dr. Allen paid a warm and feeling tribute to the character and life of this godly woman. Burial was at Evergreen cemetery.

LILLIAN ALICE SOMERS

Lillian Alice, wife of Rev. J. E. Somers, pastor at Ridgeway, Mich., and youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dinsmore, of Bay City, Mich., was born near Port Huron, Mich. April 5, 1873, and died at the parsonage in Ridgeway, June 11, 1916. She was a member of a family of five girls and four boys, and the first to break the family circle by death. Her childhood days were spent at home in St. Clair county. When a young lady she became a public school teacher and taught for eight years, until her marriage to Rev. J. E. Somers, in Turner, Mich., February 25, 1903 where her husband was then pastor and she began her faithful and devoted labor in home nad church. The next pastorate was at Wolverine, for two years, thence to Albion where for three years she, with patience and great sacrifice and denial, assisted the husband to get a college education. Three years were then spent at Asbury church, Owosso, two at Grand Blanc, and two years in Ridgeway, Mich. Besides the husband four children constitute the family: Judson, aged twelve years; Helen, eleven years; Irene, nine years, and Pauline, seven years. She also leaves her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore, of Bay City, four sisters and four brothers. For over two years she has been failing in health and was a great sufferer, but bore it with courage and patience. Many were the tokens of love and esteem and sympathy her sickness and death called forth. Two days before the end came she called the children and members of the household to her bedside, and with what seemed to be God-given strength for such a time, gave parting words of love and counsel to all revealing her true devotion and unwavering faith in God. Funeral services were held at the parsonage in Ridgeway June 13, in the presence of a large number of true sympathizers. Rev. D. H. Ramsdell, directing the service, assisted by Rev. G. W. Jennings, Rev. J. S. Steininger, Rev. H. R. Beatty and Rev. O. J. Lyon. A near and dear friend of the family, who officiated at her marriage and baptized all the children, Rev. W. M. Ward, of Romeo, delivered the funeral address and spoke words of appreciation of her life. Interment was at Ridgeway cemetery.

The obituary of Mrs. Crane up to the time of going to press had not been received.

CONFERENCE BURIAL LOTS

Two cemetery lots are held in the name of the Detroit Annual Conference. One at Greenwood Cemetery, Flint, with one vacant burial, and one in the Forest Lawn Cemetery at Saginaw with three vacancies. These are available for members of the conference and their families in special circumstances of need.

Annual Conference Sessions

Set off from the Michigan Conference by the General Conference of 1856.

Epworth League

The Bishop's plan for the Conference included a pre-Conference Rally of the Epworth League of the Conference. The program featured Tuesday, September 12th and the response in attendance was very gratifying. Dr. Clarence W. Greene, president of the State Epworth League, presided. George Edgar Cullen led devotions. "Facing the Facts," by the Secretary of the State Epworth League, Sidney D. Eva, was introductory to a Symposium, "Kingdom Activities," the speakers being representatives of the District Leagues of the Conference.

At the afternoon session D. H. Ramsdell led the devotions. Four addresses marked the afternoon: "If I were an Epworth League President," by C. E. Wakefield; "If I were a Pastor," by Prof. Webster H. Pearce; "If I were a Junior League Superintendent," by Mrs. D. Hasler Glass, and "If I wanted to Serve," by Bishop Henderson. A very attractive and profitable day closed with a much enjoyed social hour in charge of Harvey G. Pearce.

Evangelism and Religious Education

Wednesday Afternoon—At 2 o'clock Bishop Henderson called the Conference to order for a "Conversation on the Work of God." He invited free participation of the members confining their thought to striking incidents of personal work and pastoral experience in demonstration that God is not dead but alive and working vigorously in this church to the Salvation of Souls. A goodly number of the ministers responded. The hour interspersed with Gospel Song proved blessedly helpful and inspiring to all present.

At 3:00 o'clock the Bishop retired and D. Hasler Glass, Superintendent of Sunday Schools of the Detroit Conference, was called to the chair. Dr. Matthew J. Trenery, Extension Secretary of the Board of Sunday Schools addressed the Conference on "Organized Adult Bible Classes: Why? and How?" Following Dr. Trenery, the theme: "Teacher Training: Its Urgency and Efficiency," was discussed by Dr. Lewis O. Hartman, Superintendent of the Foreign Department of the Board of Sunday Schools. Both of these speakers merited a much larger hearing than the diverting incidents of the day permitted.

The afternoon concluded with an "Actual Institute Demonstration of Teaching Training" in charge of the Chairman, D. Hasler Glass. The class was recruited from members of the Sunday School of the West Boulevard Church, George Edgar Gullen, pastor. This feature was of great practical value to those present. A very deep interest was evidenced in this school of methods.

Missions

Thursday was "Missionary Day." At the afternoon session Dr. A. W. Stalker presided. Samuel Howarth led in song. Julian S. West conducted the devotions.

In the series of addresses marking the day, Miss Carrie Barge, of Delaware, Ohio, Field Secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society spoke in the interest of this great department of service, reviewing the field, emphasizing the call of the West because of the baneful blight of Mormonism, the call of the South because of the need of the Negro and the Mountain Whites and the great cities because of their spiritual destitution. The frontiers and the foreigners were also considered as urgent claimants for Christly consideration. After singing Hymn No. 141 "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," the Chairman introduced Dr. M. S. Rice to speak on "Growing a Missionary Church." Dr. Rice said he would rather speak on "Is Christianity Coming or Going?" and proceeded to do so, carrying his auditors with thrilling interest as with torrential passion of utterance he determined the coming of Christian Faith with banners flying to the conquest of the world.

The program closed with a "Mission Study Demonstration" in two groups. The Woman's Home Missionary Society Class led by Miss Carrie Barge. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Class by Mrs. H. Lester Smith, with brief remarks on Missions in general by H. G. Pearce.

Church Efficiency Day—Friday Afternoon

Joint Session of Annual Conference and Laymen's Association

Mr. R. S. Campbell, of Port Huron, presided and announced Hymn 415, "Faith of Our Fathers." George Elliott led in prayer. H. Lester Smith, of Central Church, Detroit, was introduced to speak on "Efficiency in Evangelism." The speaker gave emphasis to the necessary participation of the membership in personal evangelism illustrating his points with incidents in his own pastoral experience.

Dr. John L. Fort, Superintendent of Field Work of the Commission on Finance, followed with a discussion of "Efficient Stewardship," setting forth the plans and methods adopted by the Commission and commending them to the favorable consideration of the churches of the Conference.

The Chas. Wesley Club favored the congregation with vocal music during the intermission preceding the second part of the program.

Under the head of "The Church and Community Service," a series of three addresses were given by Harry Biddlecombe, of Flat Rock. G. L. Durr, of Centenary Church, Detroit and E. D. Dimond, of Simpson Tabernacle, Detroit. The first two related achievements in their fields. The last dealt with the problem of conserving Childhood and Youth to the Church. The discussion included statement of the plans of Simpson Tabernacle for caring for young men in the church house.

The closing address, "Partners in a World Enterprise," was given by George Elliott of Mt. Clemens and was a fitting climax to a memorable day in our Conference history, by this prophet of Methodism.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Laying Corner Stone

Wednesday evening at 6:00 o'clock Bishop Henderson, assisted by the District Superintendents and Pastor George Edgar Gullen laid the corner stone of the new West Grand Boulevard Church. Harold Goodenow, the first pastor made a brief address recounting the early history of the Church. The Charles Wesley Club sang and the ritual service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was impressively used in invoking the blessing of God upon this growing enterprise.

Sunday Services

The day opened with a gracious Love Feast in the Grand River Avenue Methodist Church under the leadership of J. M. Gordon. An interesting feature of this service was the presence within the altar of the church of a numerous company of veteran ministers headed by Seth Reed.

At the hour of morning service Bishop Henderson preached to a great congregation from the text, John 13: 4, "He took a Towel," emphasizing that true greatness is the measure of a man's reach in service.

At three o'clock the ritual service was impressively used by the Bishop in the ordination of Deacons and Elders. The Bishop was assisted by the District Superintendents, the Conference Secretary, the Board of Examiners, the Charles Wesley Club and the Committee in Ordination,—fifteen Deacons and thirteen Elders were ordained.

Following this service Bishop Henderson proceeded to Highland Park and laid the corner stone of the New First Church, Ernest Akin, pastor. A large and interested congregation attended the service. The Charles Wesley Club sang a number of selections.

A great congregation greeted Clinton N. Howard, of Rochester, New York at the hour of evening service. This speaker was at his best as he arraigned John Barleycorn and convicted him the arch criminal of the ages and pleaded for the incoming of the era of peace and prohibition. The audience enthusiastically responded to the call for a decisive vote at the November election.

The singing of the Grand River Avenue Church Choir, under the leadership of Prof. Harry Heard, was greatly enjoyed at both morning and evening services. At the latter Reece Garlic, a boy soprano, charmingly rendered a solo.

Reception to the Bishop

Monday evening at eight o'clock a reception was tendered Bishop and Mrs. Henderson and their son. Frank Foster Fitchett presided. Geo. Elliott welcomed the Episcopal family in the name of Michigan Methodism. James Schermerhorn, editor of the Detroit Times, tendered the welcome of the City of Detroit. The chorus choir rendered several delightful numbers. After the reading of the appointments, the audience adjourned to the church parlors to meet the Bishop and Mrs. Henderson. Light refreshments were served.

RULES OF ORDER

Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1875, and Adopted at Each Session Since

1. The Conference shall meet at 8½ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourn at its discretion.

2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned. The first half hour of the session shall be devoted to religious services, and thereafter the journals of the preceding day shall be read and approved.

3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

4. He shall appoint all Committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one Committee at the same time.

5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.

6. When a motion, resolution, or report presented is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before action or amendment.

7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a Committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.

8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.

10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any persons speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.

12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.

14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him.

15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.

16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.

17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.

18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise ten days in advance, if practicable, so the accused may have an opportunity for defense.

19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.

20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.

[A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table.]

Historical

HISTORICAL STATEMENT CONCERNING THE ENDOWMENT FUND CAMPAIGN FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

Prepared by Rev. W. G. Nixon on request of the Board of Trustees of the Corporate Conference for publication in the minutes of 1916.

May 24, 1915, by request of the Program Committee of the Detroit Preachers' Association, held in the Jefferson Avenue Church, Rev. W. G. Nixon read a paper on "What is the Duty of the Detroit Conference Toward the Endowment Fund for Retired Ministers." At this meeting it was planned to hold a meeting of representative ministers and laymen to launch the campaign. Such a meeting was held in the Central Church, Detroit, July 27, 1915, at which time a committee consisting of Mr. A. L. Parker, Mr. C. A. Wagner, Mr. C. W. Leech, Rev. F. H. Townsend and Rev. W. G. Nixon was appointed to present the matter to the Annual and Lay Electoral Conference of 1915, with the recommendation: (1) That $250,000.00 be the minimum amount to be raised. (2) That a joint commission of seven ministers and eight laymen be appointed with power to conduct the campaign. A joint session of the Annual and Lay Electoral Conference was held in the First Methodist Church, Port Huron, Friday evening, Sept. 17, 1915, Bishop Burt presiding, at which time, after stirring addresses by Dr. F. L. Keeney and Dr. M. S. Rice, a report from the committee of five was given by Mr. A. L. Parker, of Detroit. On motion the corporate conference was requested to meet in extra session in order to provide for reincorporation so as to permit the election of a board of trustees composed of five laymen and four ministers. A special meeting of the corporate conference was held Monday morning Sept. 20, 1915, at which time the conference voted to authorize reincorporation to provide for a board of trustees composed of five ministers and four laymen. The following named commissioners were elected to have charge of the campaign: Rev. Charles Bronson Allen, Rev. D. H. Ramsdell, Rev. C. W. Baldwin, Rev. A. B. Leonard, Rev. John Dystant, Rev. W. E. Marvin, Mr. A. L. Parker, Mr. C. W. Leech, Mr. George Sharrard, Mr. Junius Beal, Mr. W. J. Blood, Mr. Richard Quayle, Mr. I. N. Bushong and Mr. E. O. Spaulding.

Monday, Sept. 20, 1915, Bishop Wm. Burt appointed Rev. Earl R. Rice secretary of the Permanent Endowment Fund for Conference Claimants. Friday morning, Sept. 22, 1916, at the Grand River Avenue Church, Detroit, a joint executive session of the Conference and the Laymen's Association was held, Mr. A. L. Parker presiding. The plan of a generous layman to build up an endowment fund of $1,000,000.00 was presented and was heartily endorsed. Monday, Sept. 18, 1916, at 10:50 Bishop Henderson called for a session of the corporate conference which body voted that the trustees be authorized and instructed to turn over all invested funds to the proposed Methodist Foundation as soon as the legal requirements are met and the equity rights of the ministers are safeguarded.

The Superannuated Preachers' Aid Society took similar action on the above date, thus opening the way for a great consolidated endowment fund.
